REPORT OF THE PLAISTOW FIRE DEPARTMENT

Following is the report of the Plaistow Fire Department from January 1, 1940 to December 31, 1940.

The department answered the fewest calls and had the smallest fire loss in the past ten years.

There were thirty-five calls answered; eight of these were for out-of-town calls; six were chimney fires; four were fires in homes; one in a business establishment; one an auto fire; and the rest were grass and forest.

We had help from Newton twice and from Haverhill once.

The estimated fire loss was $1,591.

At the last town meeting in March, 1940, it was voted to pay the firemen,—the rate of pay being determined by the board of engineers. The following is the rate of pay established by the engineers: $15 a year for the Fire Chief; $10 a year for each deputy; $5 a year for each fireman; and 50c an hour for all work while on duty.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN A. PALMER,

Chief.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board and Citizens of Plaistow:

I take pleasure in presenting my annual report as Superintendent of your schools.

The Statistical Report, Table I, is for the school year ending June 30, 1940, and Table II is for ten years ending June 30, 1940. This report is followed by the reports of the Music Supervisor and the School Nurse.

Mrs. Dorothy Bennett resigned her position as teacher of grade eight at the Pollard School, and Miss Marcia Crombie, of Bingham, Maine, was elected to fill the vacancy. This was the only change made in the teaching staff of the schools. Several of the teachers took extension or summer school courses during the year covered by this report. Miss Boody attended Plymouth State Teachers' College; Miss Neville took an extension course from Boston University, and then attended summer school there also; Miss Smith and Miss Witherell both attended Summer School at Boston University. Mrs. Longley, Miss Stevens, and Miss Neville have just completed a methods course at Boston University, on the teaching of reading. It is commendable that so many of our teachers have been active in furthering their professional education by professional study during the year.

The enrollment for the year covered by this report was two hundred four, showing an increase of eleven over the previous year. The school attendance averaged 95.24% of the membership, as compared with the state average of 95.37%.

There were nineteen boys and girls graduated from the eighth grade last year, and all but one of them have entered a high school this year. Each year the Sons of the American Revolution give a medal to the pupil in the graduating class of the elementary schools who has best exemplified the principles of good citizenship. The medal was awarded to Anthony Licakis last year.

The following list shows the September enrollment of Plaistow pupils in High Schools:

Haverhill High School	41
Sanborn Seminary	15
Total Pupils enrolled in high schools	56

During the Christmas Vacaton a new electric range was installed in the Home Economics Room at the Pollard School. The range has been loaned to the school by the Exeter and Hampton Electric Company, and there is no cost to the District other than the cost of operation. This addition greatly improved the facilities for the seventh and eighth grade girls. Some cooking utensils have been added this year, and we hope to continue with additions from year to year until we reach adequate equipment for group cooking.

Screens were put on every other window last fall, and this together with screen doors, helped greatly in keeping the rooms free of flies, which have been so troublesome in the past. The new water filterer has greatly improved the quality of the water supply. The coroded parts of the toilet system were replaced last summer, and should now last for a long time. The added lghts in the girls' toilets are a great improvement, and have been appreciated.

At the time the late Arthur G. Pollard gave money for re-modelling and enlarging the school building which was named for him, he gave to the town a sizeable tract of land in the back of the building to be used as a playground. It would simplify matters both for the Selectmen and the School Board if the playground were a legal part of the Pollard School. We hope this proposal will meet wth approval.

Through the cooperation of the trustees of the Public Library a fine selection of books are available in several grades to stimulate the interest of children in reading good books during their leisure tme. A reading club organized in the second grade room furthers this enterprise. These pupils are also engaged in creating winter feeding stations for birds. During a unit of study on Indians in the third grade room many Indian objects have been made, such as wigwams, canoes, clay dishes, etc., which not only hold the interest of the pupils, but are very instructive as well. The individual construction of a native home to be used by the fourth grade in a setting of a Congo Village, encouraged individual responsibility. A play, written and directed by this group was presented during National Education Week.

A citizenship club in the fifth grade takes charge of the many duties that have to be performed in the schoolroom, and arranged a special program for the parents during National Education Week. Formal procedure in conducting a library and book club in the sixth grade tends to develop worthy characteristics in the boys and girls. Monthly programs are presented which include plays, telling of stories, riddles on character, and other interesting activities which help to stimulate the reading interest of the group. The serving of cocoa at lunch time is being carried on by the girls in the seventh and eighth grade. We received much benefit from the visit of Miss Verna Payson, of the State Board Home Economics Department, who supervised the work, and made suggestions for improving conditions in the home economics room. A home demonstrator from the Exeter & Hampton Electric Company demonstrated the use of the new electric range and prepared and served an oven meal.

Metropolitan Achievement Tests were given during the year to all pupils in grades two through grades eight. The Otis Mental Test was administered in the fourth grade. Through a study of the test results the teacher is able to determine where there may be weakness in her work with individuals as well as with the group as a whole. She is then in a better position to correct those weaknesses and modify her program. These tests are a strong factor, also, in teacher growth, with the improvement in teaching efficiency as a result. The results obtained on the Standard Tests, in the tool subjects, that have been given during the year have been satisfactory. In most instances, our median achievement has been at or above the standard set up by the test.

The radio continues to be used in the classrooms, with increased effectiveness. The most helpful programs have been those in geography and literature. We continue to limit ourselves to two listening periods per week.

In last year's report there was printed information on the method of securing a working certificate. Considerable confusion is still in evidence. There are two things to keep in mind. (1) The working certificate must be obtained from the Superintendent of Schools of the town or city where the work is located. (2) Those between sixteen and twenty-one years old, desiring a certificate, should present, in person, to the certifying officer, a birth certificate, and a statement from their employer, certifying that employment is being given.

The goal of the school and the home is the same—good citizenship. A good home is still the best school yet devised by society. Too often we think of education as the learning acquired in schools, from books. We, in school work, know that "book learning" is only a part of life's education. We try to teach the meaning of work, co-operation, leadership, followership, and to develop traits of good personality. We believe in the necessity of the three R's, for we know that these subjects have a life value and use.

But parents are teachers. The home is more fundamental than the school in getting ready for life; for a home is a natural situation. The family group has been the basis of society for untold generations.

What ought parents teach? First, parents, ought to teach the meaning of discipline. The school has your child a few hours a day for less than half the days of the year. Discipline is a difficult trait to describe. But it is self-evident. Life requires discipline. It is the parent's primary responsibility to instill it. The reasonably disciplined child has a head start in the battle of life over the one who has learned little self-control.

Second, parents ought to teach their children the meaning of work. It's just as easy to instill the work habit in children as it is the play habit. Work is a foundation stone of success in life. Many young people do not succeed in their jobs because they lack the work attitude. The parent who says, "Let John and Mary have a good time now; they'll find out what life is when they grow up", is doing his children a great wrong. True education is getting ready for this practical, everyday world of ours, and honest work is a vital part of it.

Third, the home should teach certain traits that help mould a well-rounded personality; courtesy, cleanliness, an optimistic viewpoint, right attitude toward money, co-operation, self-reliance, and learning to live with others.

The goal of the home and school is the same. We want young people to become good citizens. Working together, in common understanding, we can help boys and girls become the right type of citizens.

We have tried to prepare our pupils for enlightened citizenship by attempting to develop skills in the fundamental tool subjects—arithmetic, reading, spelling, spoken and written English, geography, and history. Every child should have the satisfaction of success in his work.

Science plays such an important part in human living today. that it must have a definite place on the school program. The work of the seventh and eighth grades has been so arranged that the boys and girls would learn to appreciate their immediate environment.

Health and Safety Education continues to receive considerable attention. Another important phase of our work has been to provide at least to some extent, activities that will influence the pupils in the use of their leisure time, not only now, but later in life. Our world has become "leisure time conscious". One writer states: "The backyard, playground, and street parallel and eclipse the school—the press, the radio, the motion picture, and the comic strip all reach out after the child." The school cannot change all of these influences at once, but it can assist the child in many ways by intelligent and patient guidance.

Our Parent Teacher Association continues as a vital factor in the work of education, and the numerous ways it assists the schools are greatly appreciated. We also wish to express our appreciation to the Red Cross for the assistance given.

In conclusion I wish to express my appreciation for the co-operation accorded me by the School Board, parents, teachers, and pupils.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM J. NELSON,

Superintendent of Schools.

REPORT OF THE SUPERVISOR OF MUSIC

To Mr. W. J. Nelson,
Superintendent of Schools:

I herewith submit my annual report as Supervisor of Music in the Plaistow Schools.

Today when all educational agencies are much concerned with the training for leisure, music holds a more important place in our school curriculum. Through music, the students develop the power of expression and the power of appreciation of the beautiful. Music Education begins in the first grade where the children are taught to sing tunefully, many beautiful songs based on topics familiar to them. Music reading, which is introduced in the second grade is carried on through the eighth grade.

Arrangements have been made for pupils to take violin lessons once a week. Ten pupils are doing this at their own expense. There has been a great amount of enthusiasm in the undertaking and some of the boys and girls are really playing the instrument.

The end of the year finds me, as always grateful to the teachers, on whose assistance I rely to such a great extent. For your co-operation, I wish to express my appreciation and thanks.

Respectfully submitted,

EVA W. THOMPSON,

Supervisor of Music.

Tonsil operations, 3. Adenoids, 3.

Examination of eyes, (oculist) 1.

Examination of ears, and treatment secured, 1.

Special examination of lungs, with follow up work, 1.

Special inspections of all children for any evidences of measles skin diseases, and pediculosis. Several children were excluded with rashes, and sore throats, during the measles epidemic.

Assisted at the baby clinic during the month of May.

Applied for money from the P. T. A. to sponsor the dental clinic.

They kindly consented to assist, and the clinic was held each week, (one day) until children's teeth were cared for. (April)

Children were weighed several times during the year, and records sent home to parents. Reports kept on charts provided, in each school room.

Cod Liver Oil and milk was provided for the needy children by the P. T. A. This is greatly appreciated, and is of great benefit to these children. Thanks is extended to the P. T. A. for this service.

Respectfully submitted,
